Dr. Nikki Woodson Receives Fulbright Award in Singapore

The U.S. Department of State and the Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board are pleased to announce that Dr. Nikki Woodson, Superintendent of Washington Township Schools was awarded the Fulbright Leaders for Global Schools Program held in Singapore in July 2022.

As a Fulbright recipient, Woodson shared knowledge and fostered meaningful connections across communities in the United States and Singapore. Fulbright awardees engaged in cutting-edge research and expand their professional networks, often continuing research collaborations started abroad and laying the groundwork for forging future partnerships between institutions. As Fulbright alumni, their careers are enriched by joining a network of thousands of esteemed scholars, many of whom are leaders in their fields. Fulbright alumni include 60 Nobel Prize laureates, 89 Pulitzer Prize recipients, and 40 who have served as a head of state or government.

The Fulbright Program is the U.S. government's flagship international educational exchange program and is supported by the people of the United States and partner countries around the world. The Fulbright Program is funded through an annual appropriation made by the U.S. Congress to the U.S. Department of State's Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs. Participating governments and host institutions, corporations, and foundations around the world also provide direct and indirect support to the Program.

For over 75 years, the Fulbright Program has provided more than 400,000 participants - chosen for their academic merit and leadership potential - with the opportunity to study, teach and conduct research, exchange ideas, and contribute to finding solutions to shared international concerns.
