

2020 Construction Referendum FAQ

MSDWT Performing Arts Summary of 2020 Improvements & Estimated Costs

Question: How will the 2020 Construction Referendum support Performing Arts?

Answer: Approximately $29,000,000 million would be required from the May 2020 referendum to provide the following Performing Arts improvements at the High School and Middle Schools. Below is a summary of the improvements for each school.

North Central High School Performing Arts
2020 Estimate with Inflation	$19,870,906
Additional Improvements - Choir, Orchestra, Band & Support Spaces
Replace Doors to Auditorium with Sound Doors
Off-Site Performing Arts Storage Area - % of overall storage need (Remainder part of HS renovation)
Technology Supporting Performing Arts
HVAC & Controls Supporting Performing Arts
Site work for Additions supporting Performing Arts including Band Practice Lot

Eastwood Middle School Performing Arts
2020 Estimate with Inflation	$628,094
Add Stage Lighting
Add Stage Curtains
Add Bleachers to Cafetorium - Performance Space
Acoustical Wall and Ceiling Panels for Cafetorium
Acoustical Wall and Ceiling Panels for Music Rooms
Add Ramp to Exterior Platform Access

Westlane Middle School Performing Arts
2020 Estimate with Inflation	$1,586,129
Add Stage Lighting
Add Stage Curtains

Add Bleachers to Cafetorium - Performance Space
Acoustical Wall and Ceiling Panels for Cafetorium
Acoustical Wall and Ceiling Panels for Music Rooms
Music Room Renovations - Increase Size
Add Ramp to Exterior Platform Access

New Northview Middle School Performing Arts

2020 Estimate Performing Arts with Inflation $6,700,000

- The New Northview Middle School will be designed to meet the district's educational specifications for equity across all district middle schools: Capacity/Educational Effectiveness, Safety, Security, and Code Compliance
- The New Northview Middle School building will be designed for student enrollment of 1050 and the new educational space will be aligned with newly renovated Eastwood and Westlane Middle Schools: Compliance, Healthy Learning Environment and Technology
- The New Northview Middle School will provide Performing Arts facilities in alignment with Eastwood and Westlane Middle Schools including - Performing Arts Classrooms, Platform & Seating for Performances & Support Spaces

Comprehensive details about both Construction and Operating Referenda can be found at: <https://www.msdt.k12.in.us/future-planning/>